

Ava and Alexis McClure

Biography

Named Forbes Magazine's Youngest Top Influential Kids of 2017, Ava and Alexis McClure, 7, have taken the industry by storm. The YouTube stars captivated the hearts of millions when their parents, Justin and Ami McClure, captured Alexis being devastated to learn she was one minute younger than her twin sister Ava. Since then, the twins have become viral sensations. Their adorable wit and infectious charm attracted an online following of over 2 million fans spanning multiple social media platforms. The McClure twins have been featured in Forbes, The Huffington Post, Daily News, Yahoo, NBC, and People Magazine, and made their television debut on Good Morning America in 2016. The duo have walked the runways of New York Fashion Week and Los Angeles Fashion Week and recently closed a deal with Walmart.