

Jack Jokinen

Biography

Jack Jokinen is a technology professional, comedian, blogger, podcaster, and author, known for his appearances with Barstool Sports, Bronx Pinstripes, WFAN, Fox Sports and YES Network, as “JJ”. On December 13th, 2019 Jack and his wife had just welcomed their daughter a month earlier when he took his first rescue, George, for a walk in a winter storm. When Jack came home, he didn’t close the door securely and awoke to find a stray dog in the family’s living room. After a couple of tweets about finding a dog, Jack was on the news around the world. This dog would become Suzyn Pupman and set Jack out on a path to inspire others to adopt their next pet instead of turning to breeders.
