

Dr. Donna Oriowo

Biography

Dr. Donna Oriowo (oreo-whoa!) LICSW, CST is an award-winning DEI advocate, international speaker and certified sex and relationship therapist in the Washington, D.C. metro area. She is the owner of a private practice, AnnodRight, through which she works with Black women on issues related to colorism and texturism and its impacts on mental and sexual health. Dr. Donna specializes in helping Black women to feel free, fabulous, and f*cked!

She is the author of Cocoa Butter & Hair Grease: A Self Love Journey Through Hair and Skin and the host of a weekly family meeting for Black women called "In My Black Feelings". Dr. Donna collects inspiring quotes, eats donuts, loves pasta, travels to learn, gives COVID-safe handshakes, warm hugs, and (figurative) knocks on the head. She served as DEI Co-chair and Communications Steering Committee Chair for AASECT and is a member of the Women of Color Sexual Health Network (WOCSHN). She can be found on Facebook and Instagram @Dr. DonnaOriowo, or you can visit her on the interwebs at DonnaOriowo.com.
