

Michelle McKinney Hammond

Biography

Michelle McKinney Hammond is the author of more than 40 books, with over two million copies sold worldwide. She is an international speaker, vocalist, Emmy Award-winning television co-host, host of Sunday School Made Simple (Urban Ministries Inc.) airing weekly on YouTube, and convener of the Divine Inspiration for Victorious Attitude (D.I.V.A.) Principle Conference, which brings together women in Christian ministry from across the globe, empowering them spiritually, emotionally, and purposefully to thrive in every area of their lives.

A relationship expert known as the "queen of reinvention," Michelle leads audiences on a transformative journey—inspiring them to live to their fullest potential, embrace purpose, achieve spiritual wholeness, and experience fulfilling love. Her work has impacted millions across the globe, and she is widely respected for her practical, biblically grounded approach to relationships, personal development, and spiritual growth.

Michelle has spoken on major platforms including The Potter's House, Crystal Cathedral, and for corporate organizations including Walmart. A gifted communicator, Michelle seamlessly blends wisdom, humor, and deep spiritual insight, making her a highly sought-after speaker for conferences, churches, and leadership events worldwide.

In addition to her speaking and writing, Michelle is an accomplished singer and songwriter with multiple music projects to her credit. She is the visionary behind Relevance, a dynamic music ministry based in West Africa.

